Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, September 4, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Do not be affected by the slowness regarding the follow-up of these messages; it isn't the norm, but they are taken down with love, and that is the important thing in this matter. Be at peace, my dear daughter. See only the beautiful, the good that these writings generate. They help so many of our brothers and sisters; you are given enough evidence of this from around the world. Nothing is simple, ever. Humans sometimes look for complications where there shouldn't be any. After so many centuries, sacred books are still undergoing corrections to suit the spirit of current times, whereas readers themselves should adhere to what existed originally, without distorting anything in an attempt to suit a questionable modernity.

The spirit is defined by words, sounds that are in tune with the vibrations of human beings. Many subtleties still escape human beings; the content of a message like this goes far beyond the written word in its effects. It is to be respected in its structure, provided the language is correct. Our abhyasis are doing their best, according to their conception of things. Let them trust us; we offer them the best with simple means and common words and expressions. These messages are not 'literary works', as has been said. No matter; they touch the hearts of beings sensitive to their vibrations – that is the important thing, you can be sure. Everyone is doing their best, according to their conception of things. For our part, we are trying by different means to help our abhyasis, convinced and fervent in their inquiry, and the results make us happy, you can be sure.

Blessings.
