Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, September 14, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Plunge into yourself, into this ocean of love where worries and sorrows are forgotten in these moments that delight the soul. There, in total surrender, you listen to us. This contact goes well beyond the receptivity of a medium. Such writings are and will remain unique among their kind, you can be sure. In them is accomplished what is to be, and which cannot be humanly described or understood in all its subtlety. So it is, shall we say, to conclude the matter.

The refuge of faith is sacred for the human being. In this era of disorientation and suffering, our spiritual way exists to help and give a deep meaning to the lives of those who are truly willing to devote themselves to it. A day will come when the truth will appear to all. Current times are forerunners, heralding the changes to come in many aspects. One day, excesses of all kinds will have to be curbed, and life will have to return to a more normal mode, so to speak.

May all dedicate themselves to what is important for them, yet without neglecting the rest; a full life in no way hinders this spiritual progress – quite the contrary. Enough examples are given in this Mission to prove that the two aspects of life, the material and the spiritual, can very well harmonise and complement each other. Nothing stops a fervent heart. In its own measure, it is nourished by this 'divine essence,' which benefits each of our brothers and sisters according to their innermost call. Future times will accelerate this process through which the divine energy will manifest in all its power. These words are not to be concealed – so we hope. Here we address ourselves to our brothers and sisters in search of the Divine. All participate in this feast, without distinction.

Blessings.
