Sunday, October 26, 2014 — 10:00 a.m.

Difficulties are an inevitable part of life; our Mission experiences them on a daily basis. Perfection will surely come to this world one day, but we are not there yet. May our abhyasis be conscious of their commitment — it is not meaningless. Many people do not realise what is at stake in such an approach and are missing the main thing by not being sufficiently committed. May peace and harmony win over all hearts and unite them for the greater good under our constant blessings."

Babuji Maharaj