Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, October 29, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

Do not worry about reactions concerning the future of this Mission; everything is mapped out for its good and that of all our faithful abhyasis around the world. Its far-reaching expansion will require a more structured implementation with senior functionaries in its different areas. Whatever may be the future of communication on this Earth, a high-level Hierarchy will attend to the cohesion of the Mission's organizational structures, essential for the proper functioning of the unprecedented spiritual empire it will become. It is not easy at the present time to picture the future, but with regard to this beautiful path of Sahaj Marg, everything will be for the best; we will see to it particularly. Its power will be unprecedented, adapted to the new era and astounding in its effects.

Tomorrow's world holds many surprises for human beings. Evolution will reach its peak and our fervent abhyasis will be particularly helped in their quest for the Divine. May all be at peace and focused on that power which will increasingly manifest over time, and may they all remain confident. Everything is for the best today; tomorrow is another day, another time, and our Mission will carry on its expansion in the world for the greatest good of all our brothers and sisters, who will be enraptured by this unprecedented power.

Special blessings to one and all.

Babuji
