Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, October 31, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

To truly engage in a spiritual path like ours is no small matter; the effects of this practice transform the being in its entirety. The work that is done is subtle, and it generates the results necessary for one's evolution. It saves precious time and allows each one, according to his or her commitment, to access the best. The new era will give a proper place to this system, wanted by the higher authorities, for the good of all. May each of our brothers and sisters realise the importance of this system, which is more subtle than it seems. It heralds the new era in which it will reach all the expansion desired and necessary for the human being open to higher realities. This future world is in the offing; we are working towards it as best we can.

Special blessings to all those willing to read these writings and consider these words with all due attention. So it is.
