Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, December 27, 2014 – 10:00 a.m.

The Sahaj Marg Mission is forging ahead. Our great son Parthasarathi is at our side from now on, in the fullness of the Spirit; thus liberated from an exacting body of flesh, he is finally free and regains his power of action in the service of this beautiful and growing spiritual way, Sahaj Marg.

Changes will take place in the Mission: new rules will be established to foster its expansion and the means of action on the material level, first and foremost for the incarnate Master and the numerous helpers serving at all levels. Our dear Kamlesh will make the relevant decisions, doing his best to fully meet the requirements of the practice and satisfy the constant needs of all abhyasis; we will come back to this. All latitude is already given to the living Master who is acting on our behalf and inspired by us to promote a salutary expansion of this beautiful way of Sahaj Marg. Humans will increasingly need means such as the ones we propose to reach a satisfactory level of consciousness, and thus overcome the stage of ignorance in which so many men and women are stagnating, up against a life that offers no real means to rise as appropriate.

May all our abhyasis unite more than ever and venerate the spiritual Masters watching over them all. They are more than ever attentive to humanity's planned evolution, our Mission representing one of its essential features.

Our dear Kamlesh is given full scope to carry this way of the heart very high; blessed is he to have this opportunity. To the entire Mission we wish the best, and all possible vigilance to reach a real commitment, supported by our constant blessings.
