As I have already said, even equipped with exceptional powers, we cannot infringe and rush the divine plans.

There are devastating wars, monstrous events of all sorts that we cannot avoid. We must remain within our limits, it is divine law and it must be respected.

You see only what cannot be stopped, but you have no idea of what is being achieved in the shadows and what you are being spared.

There is no rest for the chosen ones, ever, at any level.

You should know that on this planet, as on others, the divine laws are relentless.

That's how things must be for the balance of the universe. Earthlings are troublemakers and dangerous elements. They endanger this very well-established order and must, alas, receive lessons in the sense of reaping what they have sown. Besides the hatred and violence that reach their paroxysm, the universal harmony is endangered by the irrational inventions made by individuals believing they hold all the knowledge of the world.

The Earth is in danger because excesses prevail at all levels.

The law of the boomerang will have to be put into action to calm down this diabolic play.

My dear children, be moderating elements, luminous, in this completely mad system.
Be blessed and inspired in all circumstances.
