Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, January 14, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

We have previously communicated a strong message it seems. The Mission should prepare to enter the new era by structuring itself at all levels: abhyasis, persons in charge – all must commit themselves as best as possible to what comes under their personal responsibility, in order to meet the diverse needs of the Mission. These will keep growing. The Mission of the past was very different from what it is today, and it will grow over time while adapting to the needs of the moment. This is in the order of things.

In the future, human beings will become more refined. The caveman is a far cry from human beings of today, for whom new vistas are opening up, which will allow a rather spectacular advancement.

The current foundations of the Mission have to become stronger, and this at all levels. All abhyasis must constitute a whole, a force capable of defying time – and so it shall be. May all become aware of this potential offered by this path of the heart, not yet understood in all its subtlety. That will come, you may be sure of it – the higher authorities are watching, and their plans will be realised. This is how it is. May all be strengthened and enlightened as needed on what is necessary to prepare the Mission of the future.

Special blessings to all.
