Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, January 27, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Relax and come join us on this protected island where, in a state of utmost surrender, you can receive our comments with uncommon sensitivity. You live on love; it carries you through the days and allows you to withstand sufferings that, though hardly visible in the eyes of others, are known to us. We know everyone's life, more precisely in the subtle aspects where the best of the being is achieved. We do not dwell much on the material realm; this world is what it is. Although we are working for it to evolve towards a better state, our actual area of focus lies elsewhere. The various bodies of a human being require a subtle harmonising of their vibrations. Our method contributes to this. Its effects remain mostly hidden, but they do exist, you can be sure. This path will defy time; it is adapted to human evolution, and in a certain manner it is preparing that which is to come and establish itself here below.

"Humans are bound to change on all levels. Everything is already being put in place for a very perceptible and effective change in the being. New times will come, and a different race will evolve in an environment that is well suited for its spiritual advancement — an environment that cannot be imagined today, when there is so much to do for the welfare of one and all. Modestly, yet with effective resources, our way is working for the good of everyone, and one day, the divine purpose will be achieved.

"This is how it goes."
