Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, February 7, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

How many times have we returned to the same topics? This is unavoidable. Human beings change throughout their lives, but their true nature remains the same. Repetitions are necessary. They strengthen human beings on their personal journeys; without this consistency, one's life would be nothing but instability, and perhaps even confusion. A spiritual journey such as we propose provides a deep and lasting connection and stability that can bring about a transformation in the best of one's self.

"It is up to each of our aspirants to assess their progress, to the extent that they are able to do so. Here, we can fully appreciate the results of this work; they are very positive, you can be sure. Many of our abhyasis are committed to serving this path and they do so brilliantly, thus promoting the expansion of this Mission in the world. The progress made in such a short time is encouraging and shows how beneficial this method is, in spite of its simple appearance. All of us here are delighted by the results. When beings committed to this path rejoin us, they save valuable time. They can then engage differently by serving in another way.

"This unique way of the heart is developing in a simple manner, with no great fanfare. Egotistical behaviours are not welcome. The only thing that counts is each person's progress towards achieving the best. Each step forward is important; not only does it strengthen the abhyasi, but it also contributes to the expansion of the Mission for the welfare of one and all. A day will come when these comments will be more easily understood. May Sahaj Marg continue to grow in people's hearts, thus preparing the new era with the great benefits it will provide to humanity.

"May all be strengthened and blessed."
