Whispers from The Brighter World

Having the ability to love is a very precious gift, namely to love divinity, the living spiritual Master who is capable of representing this entity [divinity] on Earth. This entity is so special that it can transform a life and lead it to the highest level. These beings [spiritual Masters] are chosen from among so many others, but in actuality they are born for the purpose, without this being apparent to the eyes of humans. They have a mission: to enlighten beings and lead them to a path they have never imagined. Many of our brothers and sisters are in that situation at a specific time; their lives have changed course and they are committed to this way of Sahaj Marg. This way is growing in the world, and we are happy about that. What it is able to do in people's hearts is not commonplace and unfolds over time, when it is received by divine grace.

"Love at this level is a very special energy; what it is able to accomplish is beyond imagination. The human being is very small before it. It produces in hearts transformations that are capable, single-handedly, of enriching life in ways one would never expect. Following a spiritual path like this one saves precious time; these words are not hollow — they are real, and we are always able to note this with happiness. What is good for our brother and sister abhyasis can only make us happy; this is how it is."
