Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, February 16, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

There is always something to say. Repetitions are useful, and such is the very principle of life in all its expressions. Everything evolves and is renewed through a process of repetition. Every day reproduces a form of life; such is the case in all kingdoms. On their spiritual journey, human beings need to do the same. Their steadfast action is productive, and engaging in a spiritual way implies the implementation of rituals; they are necessary for all life. With regard to this, one's choice is the key to advancing, and this practice saves valuable time. Everything is taken into account and properly valued, and no effort is futile. What is done in our Mission contributes to the elevation of the soul — is this elevation not the most important aspect! Apart from that, everything is pointless. Destiny does its work, weaving its web in its own manner, and within that web human beings do not matter much. They must adapt to circumstances. It is reassuring to have this advantage, namely the benefits of an extraordinary spiritual journey that discreetly but effectively produces satisfactory results.

"Each incarnation is a page in the great book of life. It is full of all kinds of surprises, and this gives it charm despite some unpleasant episodes. Thus is built that which must be built. Spirituality is the saviour, and so has it always been since the dawn of time. The human being is so small in the face of the divine power — it is best one serve this power and adjust oneself to its principles in order to evolve and save precious time on this initiatory journey.

"Blessings to all, for the best."
