Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, February 20, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

These messages will remain in the hearts of many of our brothers and sisters; they have marked the journey in their own manner and opened within people other perspectives. This spiritual path has solid foundations. Time strengthens them and allows everyone to grow according to their deepest aspirations. Nothing can be forced — such is not the purpose. Only a deep and sincere call allows one to truly advance and fully make the most of this extraordinary method. It prepares future times in which an important spiritual evolution will take place — one that has long been foreseen. Everything is slow on Earth, but that which is planned does happen; this is inevitable.

"The world of the future will be different in every respect, and so will human beings. May wisdom one day manifest here below and expel once and for all the endless strife, hatred and other types of violence that are so very damaging to a certain kind of equilibrium. We don't mean to judge — this is neither the intention nor the purpose of these comments. With this very special practice may we simply lead our brothers and sisters to a balance that is satisfactory in every respect. Life here below is not simple. It is an eternal struggle, having a greater or lesser degree of difficulty, but allowing human beings to advance when they have become aware of this reality within themselves — that is, the presence of the Divine. The goal to be reached is the ultimate connection to the absolute power, a power that dwells within them, and yet one that they do not grasp very well. A day will come when they shall.

"Blessings to all."
