Whispers from The Brighter World

Monday, February 23, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Write with your heart, and the words will come. For a long time we have been inspiring these words in you, and as you know, they have never failed. You tune into us with love, and this is important. Being a medium is not enough for accomplishing what is happening here; the ties of the heart are the real reason for this unprecedented accomplishment. This goes way back in time. Being in the service of the Divine is not new to you. Do not feel embarrassed like you do — why would we not mention here one of the important aspects promoting the reception of these sacred texts! They call for respect and even, one might say, veneration for the Masters of this Mission who inspire them. Disrespect for these writings is unworthy of those who persist in rejecting them. No matter. These writings exist and they will defy time — that is the only reason to carry on as long as possible with this extraordinary odyssey, in a world that is focused on material aspects.

"Doesn't everything have its raison d'être! These writings will remain an asset that is appreciated in the Mission of Sahaj Marg, whose trajectory will defy time. Ashrams will be built, and many of our abhyasis will be increasingly committed to this initiatory journey, one that is discreet but effective. The coming century will be decisive for humanity. It is up to each and every one to be committed in their own manner; they will not regret it. One day, the divine goal will be attained — is it not the objective of this Mission!"
