Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, February 24, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

This ocean of love, in which your soul is enraptured, enchants the multitude of hearts who love fervently. To attain the goal is their objective, and we are helping them in this with joy. An incarnation is never simple, and none of them spares us from trials or sufferings of all kinds. These contribute to the elevation of the being and they are necessary. It is not easy to understand this principle and yet it is a proven one; so has it been since the dawn of time. Ardent souls do not shy away from it. Acceptance is their privilege, and it saves them valuable time. How can one accept the laws of life? In this area, surrender to the spiritual Master is recommended. It is the best asset for any approach of this kind – without it, such an approach would be further complicated.

Wisdom comes with time. Time is counted; it punctuates the life of each one to lead where one's destiny awaits. All our brothers and sisters are guided, according to their aspiration, to rise and go towards what is essential. We do not impose anything, but an appeal is always heard – even if the effects it generates are not exactly what one had hoped for. We work for the good of all, though our views do not always match their expectations. By and large, the laws of life elude them completely, one might say. We want the best for all. Far beyond this world lies Reality. We do not offer a glimpse of an illusory paradise, only a truth, one that cannot disappoint since it gradually leads them to the supreme goal.

Special blessings.
