Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, February 26, 2015 — 9:30 a.m.

Every day is an experience to be lived and considered for what it is in order to derive the maximum benefit from it. Time is short, and nothing is trivial, as joys and sorrows are necessary for each person's journey. Everything has its raison d'être. Tests are difficult to go through, but they generate the best when they are accepted out of love. It is not easy to understand all of the reasons for this; only surrender makes it possible. Such surrender is the faithful ally in this quest for the Divine where all these aspects are to be considered. The human being is so small compared to the power that rules the world and whose effects are inescapable. What would humanity be without these strict laws that are humanly incomprehensible? Human beings are only a humble link in the immense chain that stands beyond all reasoning.

"Following a spiritual path sheds light on one's way; it provides reference points and helps channel a force that dwells in every human being — a force that, alas, is neglected by many people. They do not see the need to go deeper into such laws, and they only focus on material aspects, which often end only in disappointment. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see the light. Many of our brothers and sisters are opening up to this splendour and thus give a deeper meaning to their lives — there lies their real wealth. May all these sensitive souls attain the highest level of achievement — such is our constant and productive action."
