Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, March 3, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Live this unique moment with great delight; your heart rejoices in it beyond words. This oft-repeated ritual has yielded an unparalleled manna that is valued by many of our brothers and sisters. These writings will go down in history as the hallmark of Sahaj Marg, as intended by all of us here. Beyond the simplicity of their approach, the messages operate in their own manner within all beings who imbibe them for their own benefit. Each person has his or her own approach to the spiritual work that is proposed. Actual commitment changes the innermost personality and can reveal aspects of it that cannot yet be sensed. In the future, beings will be more receptive than they are today. So many important aspects of life will be revealed to them.

"The very nature of the human being has to change and become more refined in order to enable a planned evolution that has been awaited by the great mystics for so long and with so much anticipation. It will come — time does not have the same meaning on Earth as it does for us here. The multitude is bustling about at a level [of consciousness] in which materiality is law. This situation is very distressing, but it cannot be radically changed in this era of transition and preparation for a better world — one that is more refined and receptive to divine splendour than ever before. Everything moves very slowly here below. We have to adapt to it through our extraordinary action. One day the divine goal will be achieved; is that not the most beautiful challenge!

"To all, our constant blessings."
