My Beloved Master
Revered Babuji Maharaj

Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, March 24, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

When the soul is surrendered to divine power, the best is accomplished and the soul is thrilled. Its thirst for the Divine grows, and the work of a spiritual Master — as it is done here in this way of the heart — necessarily fulfils it. This action goes far beyond discourse and rituals, though they are necessary. Everything in this Mission is done to meet the expectations of our aspirants; their pace is respected, but we nevertheless go beyond their own action to open up their way forward. The aim of all life is to get there, yet one has to understand this and have the openness needed to make the move. Some beings would like to make it; they are ready for it, but they hesitate because of their old commitments to which they feel bound, and they thus waste valuable time.

"The current era brings about a new teaching, a different practice that is active on subtle levels. Sensitive points are targeted, producing results where least expected. Nothing is ever easy in this world. The world of the Spirit opens up new perspectives onto areas where a transformation is accomplished in beings who aspire for the divine essence — that which is capable of saving them valuable time. We do repeat things, but this is necessary because of the way the world is designed — it takes a long time to make a human being aware of reality, far beyond the material realm. May one and all clear the necessary steps to reach the desired level. We are seeing to it.

"Blessings to all."

Babuji Maharaj