Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, March 27, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Beings of light, as you call them, are closer to all of you than you can imagine. Within a spiritual path like Sahaj Marg, they would like to enjoy a climate of peace and complete harmony. Unfortunately, human failings are there and they inevitably create some turbulence. Good intentions are beneficial; we appreciate them, and even more do we appreciate acts that are capable of bringing about the best for the entire Mission. The Mission is expanding worldwide and is adjusting to the lifestyles and ways of thinking in various countries. That which is essential is thus available, and it fully benefits one and all. Each abhyasi means well, and this is what matters. The goal to be achieved is the challenge for everyone and the results are by and large satisfactory, according to our expectations.

"Major gatherings that are coming up are very promising — grace will pour down, one might say; it is invoked in such auspicious circumstances and we respond with all the love possible. We encourage such events that bring together and further unite our abhyasis in an extraordinary impulse of fervour. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être! Action and meditation complement one another in order to achieve the best. This way of Sahaj Marg is full of resources, some of which are yet to be discovered. Time does its work; it's up to everyone to be committed as best they can for their own welfare, as well as that of the multitude. Blessed be this way that is supported so very much by the higher powers.

"To all, the best."
