Whispers from The Brighter World

Let your heart sing; it does this very well. Is it not the most gratifying thing possible at this stage of your life? It is stability itself. Such love is durable and does not fluctuate as the days pass by. It is a real strength for human beings throughout their lives. Following a spiritual way charts a path, providing reference points on this long journey and bringing soothing reassurance. Such an approach saves valuable time for what is to come in other places — places of which the human being is not really aware. Many ideas and images have been given, but they do not correspond to the reality, which is beyond human understanding. Everything in its time. With regard to this, it is sufficient in this incarnation to act as best you can and move forward towards the goal. One day it will reveal itself as it must to the human being, whose journey continues in other places. Each person is supported in this by subtle vibrations, refined to a greater or lesser degree depending on the progress achieved.

"The way of Sahaj Marg is a real asset in this sense too; the achievements of one's current life are precious, constituting a major support for proceeding towards other shores. Blessed are the pure in heart who are capable of distinguishing right from wrong. We are not judgemental; we just want to make our brothers and sisters aware of what is most important for them. Everything passes and dissolves over time, but divine love remains victorious and immutable. May all move forward on this rewarding path to attain the best.

"Blessings to all."
