Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, April 14, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

These messages are charged for centuries, why not state it. By reading them, ardent hearts find a reassurance; this subtle energy corresponds to them, this is to be emphasised. The mysteries of life are great, and the human being is very small before them. In many circumstances people believe they know, but they do not. Love is a human being's only true potential. This love is a divine gift; it does not disappoint, and it propels the being to prodigious heights. Sahaj Marg, as practised in this way of ours, supports human evolution, elevating the soul to heights it could not otherwise reach. Why then would these messages be given if they were not thus divinely willed.

Everything has its raison d'être, human beings must understand this. Even if it is not easy to accept the turbulence of a life, it must be faced. Faith saves one from everything, it is said. Love can lift one to the highest summits and bring the soul to bliss. Divine love is at the source of everything, the redeeming energy, that which creates life at its purest and most exalted level; it fulfils hearts in need. Learning to overcome the vicissitudes of this world and take refuge in this love is a divine gift, and one must know how to value it.

May all our brothers and sisters progress towards these shores where love haloes the weariest brows and fulfils all hearts eager to receive it. Such is our wish. So it is.
