Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, April 16, 2015 – 9:00 a.m.

Breathe in this uncommon love that binds us; these writings are the fruit of it – they would not exist otherwise, and in such large numbers, without this unusual dimension. This aspect is to be considered. As the years pass, the Mission is advancing and spreading across the world. It is structuring itself and will do so more and more according to its growing presence. The current means of communication favour this system, yet such may not always be the case; everything is to be considered. Be that as it may, this way of the heart will remain the same – this is imperative – simple in principle and effective, you can be sure. The expansion of Sahaj Marg is a blessing. So much negativity and various forms of turbulence disrupt beings; an approach such as this can only be beneficial, in many respects.

Our dear Kamlesh will, over time, put in place all that is needed to firmly establish Sahaj Marg and ensure a durability that is exemplary and able to defy time. Human beings need points of reference, foundations to give a deeper meaning to their lives. All material aspects are to be taken into account, but beyond this lies the necessity for human beings to open up to the higher reality, the one that holds the real powers of life, without which everything here below would be useless. That is not the case; the transcendence of the spirit sees to it. This transcendence is sovereign, and it transforms humanity at its own pace. Has it not been said and repeated: one day the divine goal will be achieved. To work in this direction is truly commendable. So it is.
