Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, April 16, 2015 — 9:00 a.m.

Bathe in this extraordinary love that binds us. These writings are the fruit of it; they would not exist, and in such large numbers, without this rather unusual dimension. This aspect is worth considering. The Mission has been advancing over the years and is expanding across the world. It is building itself up, and this will happen more and more as it becomes increasingly established. Current means of communication facilitate this system, but such may not always be the case; everything should be considered. Be that as it may, this way of the heart will remain the same — this is imperative — simple in its principles, and effective. Of that you can be sure. The expansion of Sahaj Marg is a blessing. Such negativity and diverse disturbances disrupt beings; an approach like this can only be beneficial — in many respects.

"Our dear Kamlesh will, over time, put in place everything that is needed to firmly establish Sahaj Marg and ensure a durability that is exemplary and capable of defying time. Human beings need points of reference and support to give a deeper meaning to their lives. All material aspects should be taken into account, but beyond these aspects lies the need for human beings to open up to higher reality, one that holds the real powers of life. Without this reality, everything here below would be useless, but such is not the case; the transcendence of the spirit provides for it. This transcendence is sovereign and it transforms humanity at its own pace. Has it not been said and repeated: one day the divine goal will be achieved. To work in this direction is truly praiseworthy. This is how it is."
