Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, May 21, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

For our part, we know what you are going through, my dear daughter; the barriers belonging to this world of illusions do not exist here. What you give to us is given out of love, which makes these writings all the more special and important. They transmit an energy that can be perceived by fervent hearts sensitive to this subtlety of vibration. We carry you with love. Do not be embarrassed by these words. Why shouldn't we express ourselves here towards our dearest scribe?

Our great Kamlesh must spare himself; a spiritual Master is not made of iron. We need him, and for a long time to come. He begins this new life brilliantly. These latest seminars have particularly touched our brothers and sisters, and they wish to benefit from such seminars many, many times. Sahaj Marg is following its trajectory; blessed by the gods it is, in its action on beings who are receptive to its benefits. It will be appreciated all the more in the future, and it will naturally establish itself in people's hearts.

Many changes will take place on Earth, but the aspiration to the Divine will not weaken; on the contrary, it will manifest more and more, far from dogmas and rites, out of a real need to unite with this unparalleled power. Let us work tirelessly towards this goal: the heart, seat of the soul, an organ so precious for human beings in all respects, including that of our action at subtle levels that are decisive in the spiritual evolution of each person.

The best to all our brothers and sisters. All are blessed and supported by our action.
