Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, May 31, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

We are in a very special relationship here; inside you the best is built, and our energies carry you in this extraordinary contact. Words flow into you, and you transcribe them. This fact is not new; it has been the case for so many years. Our abhyasis do not complain about it – many of them appreciate these messages. We do repeat ourselves, but how can we do otherwise? Life is eternally beginning anew; nothing good would be built without this perseverance in effort and the goodwill of each one. Sahaj Marg meets the expectations of current times. Its effectiveness and simplicity of approach make it easily accessible. It is up to each of our aspirants to make its benefits their own. It takes time here below for the best to be accomplished. When grace touches a soul, it can work wonders; we do witness this, you can be sure. Our way is not excluded from such facts. Although they are not showcased, they do exist. Life is full of surprises, including good ones – they are not lacking, this is verifiable.

We give these messages for a specific purpose: to help the greatest number of people on this journey of the heart, so decisive for human evolution. This organ remains mysterious; it hides many treasures which the future will bring to light. Our [esoteric] symbol is significant in this regard. One day, the heart will be revealed in all its fullness, beyond its primary functions. Life keeps its secrets well, and we need to respect this principle. We wish the best to all, under our blessings.
