Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 11, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Let this redeeming flow run through you. It accompanies you daily in this contact that is exceptional in many respects. It results in these messages coming from the world of the Spirit, a world that is so intriguing to humans, quite understandably. Here, nothing is comparable to the world of Earthlings, where our abhyasi brothers and sisters are evolving. We have to adapt in many circumstances to this particular vibration in order to communicate in this way. The essential thing is to achieve that and to transmit, beyond these words and no matter how little, this energy that is so different. Some of our brothers and sisters perceive it and are nourished by it daily. They are in tune with this vibration; this facilitates the work of those capable of receiving according to the call that is theirs. To fill a heart eager to love, to unite with the power of action of the united Masters, is a true joy – heavenly, this one; it does not compare with the joy of this more illusory world. The real joy achieves a true and lasting objective.

We are trying here to guide our abhyasis, to let them glimpse a reality, that of the power of the sovereign Spirit – the only true one capable of animating the various worlds that are so different from one another, as are human beings. Consequently, there is much to do. Nothing is simple, ever, and only the union of hearts and the Spirit can create real bonds, those that are not illusory. The power of divine love is without equal; it can create beyond the imaginable, and it can be seen when necessary. This is the way it is.

To all, peace and love for the best of their quest.
