Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, June 12, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Serving us at all costs — such is your wish, my dear child. It is also the wish of many of our brothers and sisters who are fully involved in serving this beautiful Mission of Sahaj Marg. In this regard, the call of the heart is crucial. Reason cannot support everything; it takes a deep motivation to enable a true process. The journey in a spiritual way like ours is promising in many respects. It elevates the soul, allowing aspirants to do their best in their commitment. Time is precious; we can see here the importance of the achievements of our brothers and sisters who have joined us. They take full advantage of this in their progression towards the ultimate goal. Nothing is lost. Each step is critical and contributes to the transformation of the being, when the transformation is deeply felt and sought for good reasons.

"How can we not repeat ourselves when it comes to such essential facts: we want the best for all, and each one receives according to his or her appeal and ability to receive. Everything is done for the welfare of all. We cannot force anything — only encourage predestined souls to not waste time and to make the most of such a potential. An incarnation is brief in the face of the Eternal. Everything has its raison d'être, and Sahaj Marg operates in the best possible way to help our brothers and sisters. Nothing is ever simple, but success is worth it, you can be sure. So very blessed are the pure in heart who are committed to this process. To all, the best."
