Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, June 16, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Today, more than ever, human beings need reference points in spirituality. It is not easy for them to remain serene amid the turbulence of this world, as they get destabilised by all kinds of harmful vibrations. A spiritual process provides them with landmarks and even a life purpose when they go deeper into the laws of life in all their subtlety. Incessant ordeals cause them to grow and give them good reasons to discover the true meaning of an incarnation. It is never a simple matter; where would the challenge lie if such were not the case? It is not easy for humans to understand and adapt to situations that are sometimes dramatic and very painful to endure. The recourse of faith is a precious aid; seeing only the good, the beautiful in everyone, also helps one overcome the vagaries of existence, even though it is not easy.

Following a spiritual path does not solve everything, but it helps one make sense of things and better accept what cannot be changed. Interiorizing oneself, and in a sense transcending the ups and downs of an incarnation, makes one stronger in the face of adversity. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être! Everything must be considered from the standpoint of respect for the divine laws. Nothing is done in vain; nothing is hidden except the secretly distilled love of a fervent heart, benefitting others through a very positive aura created around itself. Some places also carry special vibrations; there are many of them, although they are not always recognised as such. That does not matter. The divine laws operate in their own manner.

So it is.
