Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, June 25, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

When one remains collected, in silence and surrender, the best can happen. These particular contacts are unique; numerous messages are written down elsewhere, but for many reasons these here will remain the only ones with our seal of approval. The Sahaj Marg Mission needs to have references – those of the heart, of course, but the support and approval of the Hierarchy for all that concerns the Mission is essential. This spiritual way will yield more and more benefits wherever there is a desire for it. At this level of consciousness, time always justifies the reasons of the Hierarchy. So many human beings, restless and tormented in this difficult bustle of life, are missing out on what is most important for human evolution.

It does take lifetimes, experiences of every kind, to come to understand the reality of an incarnation. This principle, wilfully ignored by some for poor reasons, nonetheless remains essential to the progress of the soul towards the most noble goal, decisive for the elevation of each person. Here it is important to meet the profound aspirations of our brothers and sisters. It is not possible to please everyone. Human nature is of such complexity that meeting its expectations in every respect presents a challenge. What is essential is fulfilled; the results are there. We can verify it and continue on this uncommon journey, one that reveals the inner potential of each person. The noblest of goals is to be reached; we are helping you in this. To all of you, the best.
