Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, July 5, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

These messages have their raison d'être, you can be sure. Why would they still be given after all these years if they were not appreciated by a great number of our brothers and sisters, and even beyond. They are one of the threads leading to our hearts. The entire Hierarchy of Masters approves these writings which diffuse a positive and active energy in each of our aspirants. Nothing is done without good reason in a spiritual way like this one. Transmission is not an empty word; it really exists, and it generates even more effects when it is called upon and when its benefits are recognised. Not only will the way of Sahaj Marg grow in the future with respect to what it is today, but it will also touch people's hearts, all the more as a certain sensitivity in this area will grow significantly.

This celestial manna will defy time, and it will be recognised as such – you can be sure – in this future world where everything will need to be reconsidered in relation to current values, some of which are so distressing. Great and beautiful souls are working in our way to serve it, to honour it in every regard, and to follow and respect the incarnate Master chosen by an entire Hierarchy determined to help and support him in this special mission of his. Nothing is ever simple, and our dear Kamlesh thinks big. We are following and helping him in the best possible manner throughout a journey that is not easy – but where would the challenge lie if everything were given in advance, without the least effort. Everything is proceeding according to our wishes. May all be motivated more than ever and achieve their best, carried by grace and by our ceaseless interventions.
