Whispers from The Brighter World

Everything in our way is being established appropriately. The present spiritual Master, vested with our powers, is setting up new structures to meet the Mission's growing needs. We carry him in our own manner so that he does not feel too alone in the face of the vastness of the Mission whose action is unfolding here below. He has the personal resources to face up to things; he is a great being and will achieve great and beautiful things for this path of the heart — a way that is more efficient than it may seem.

"As the days pass by, each person is advancing at his or own pace, benefitting from a truly effective transmission. Sahaj Marg will influence these times, leaving a mark that is unimaginable today. Blessed are the fervent abhyasis who are advancing favourably during this incarnation. This uncommon journey prepares them for another dimension of life where their evolution will continue. Enough time has passed for us to judge this; time is precious, even more so on Earth where the foundations of a true journey of the subtle being are being laid, according to each person's call of the heart. This call is always fulfilled, you can be sure. We are sensitive to the call of one and all, each one receiving in proportion to their request. Such are the laws that govern this particular aspect of life in all its expressions.

"Engaging in a spiritual way where such a work is accomplished is a true blessing. May everyone be aware of this and never neglect the essentials. All are helped and blessed."
