Thursday, August 6, 2015 – 9:30 a.m.

These many years of faithfulness in our contacts have generated a heavenly manna – thousands of messages that are unique among their kind, you can be sure. For this, as we have already said, channelling abilities are not enough; other much more subtle reasons contribute to it. The purpose of this action is to touch hearts, to help them over the course of days by leaving an impression of a strong spirituality – one that produces the best effects in the hearts of our brothers and sisters. Our way offers various means of approach that assist people in this journey towards the ultimate goal, one that delights the soul beyond all expression. The road is long, and it's not easy, but everything has its raison d'être: joys and sorrows constitute a whole that is decisive in each person's life. Karma, as it is called, is not always easy to understand in its subtlety. Why must one suffer like this, asks the human being. How to comprehend the vagaries of life without knowing the real reasons for them – this mystery is, and will surely remain, what it is.

Following a spiritual path provides answers, even if it does not answer all questions. In this, surrender is the key; it is recommended for good reason. Having a spiritual guide at such a level of consciousness is a grace, a blessing for the entity of each person, that which delights in such a journey towards the ultimate goal. May grace, according to our wishes, carry each one of you, dear brothers and sisters engaged in this path – one very rich in its effects, you can be sure. One day, the divine goal will be achieved. So it is.
