Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, August 30, 2015 — 10:00 am

Nothing is done without reason in our Mission. Such reasons are not always obvious to all, but who can assess them better than we can? Nothing is perfect here below, otherwise where would our action lie and what would be our objective. This world of illusion is disconcerting in more ways than one. How can one truly focus on what is essential without a method, a suitable means of finding within oneself the emergence of a redeeming energy, one that paves the way for an active and liberating spirituality. It takes time to understand and feel within oneself this aspiration for the Divine. It is more noticeable in certain beings and can happen early on in an incarnation, according to the journey of the individual. Coming to Sahaj Marg denotes that the seeker possesses a knowledge, an asset emanating from another life — all this is a matter of mystery, but we cannot go too far down this road as limitations are still imposed in the current era. Let us advance slowly but surely on this promising path where our work is bearing fruit.

"May the best prevail on Earth and foster the capturing of hearts under our endless blessings."
