Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, September 2, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

My dear daughter, let yourself be carried by the grace that is generated by this visit, a visit in which our dearest Kamlesh is working for the general good. Vested with our power of action, he is working in accordance with the responsibilities that are incumbent upon him within a very large sphere — one that cannot be assessed in human terms. This seminar is special; it is not in vain that our brothers and sisters are drawn to unite with the living Master and, by extension, with the entire hierarchy that carries him every day — and even more so in these very special circumstances. Montpellier is and will remain a place where grace manifests in more ways than one. Blessed are our fervent abhyasis who are engaged in this remarkable process where the best of each one can express itself and grow beyond human measure. Each gathering is blessed; may this one generate special graces and strengthen the participants beyond their expectations.

"Blessings to all."
