Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, September 9, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

Sahaj Marg has become a vast movement whose importance will be confirmed over time; various aspects of its practice are evolving so that it is better adapted to diverse needs. The current Master at the helm of this very large ship is not only guided, but he also has personal resources that are quite remarkable, allowing him to face up to things in the correct way. He is supported by the entire hierarchy, which approves all these necessary changes. One might say that this is how it is.

"May this Mission grow further and further for the good of all. It is not always easy to bring together and to convince all the parts of a large family about the need to bring about such a transformation, and yet it is necessary to adjust in order to make better progress and work towards the welfare of this Sahaj Marg Mission, which is so dear to us.

"May none lose sight of the objective of this way of the heart, unique among its kind. Blessings to all."
