Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, September 16, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

The power of divine love accomplishes great things which a human being cannot always assess. Without it, this world would no longer exist; it would be left to itself without any possible recourse. As it stands now, its destiny unfolds like that of every human being. It takes time to admit that ordeals are necessary, that they are capable of transforming the being in some way and making one stronger in the face of adversity. Karma is what it is — that is to say, it is in part the consequence, the fruit, of our previous lives. So many experiences are needed to lead the being to a sufficient degree of awareness for a planned evolution. Sahaj Marg allows one to save valuable time. The method is active and efficient, much more than it seems; the time of assessment will reveal its effects. You can all rest assured that the assessment is very satisfactory.

"That is how it is."
