Wednesday, August 11, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

My dear child, you have done a very great cleaning work. The essentials are done. Continue to rest; you need it. There is still a lot to do. After it, [work] will be of a different nature. Let us advance step by step, and we will see how to guide you.

"We are with you; don't lose heart. Bathe in this light which is inside you. It is immutable, beyond the reach of human madness. It is your true treasure. Have a quiet day. We are happy with you; we bless you and your friends."

Babuji