Thursday, August 12, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

You are going through a critical stage, which increases your state of tiredness. Be patient, we are here. Don't linger over the incomprehension of your fellow men. If they were in your place, they would shout for help! Keep a dignified attitude, my daughter. You are courageous, which we appreciate. You should know that you have taken part in an enormous work. Be blessed."

Babuji