Whispers from The Brighter World

Thursday, November 12, 2015 – 10:00 a.m.

Transcend all these problems for a few moments of peace and love. Aren't our contacts the haven for your loving heart, totally surrendered to our presence which is constant and very attentive to your dear person. Do not feel embarrassed. These thousands of accumulated messages are clear evidence of the unique link that unites your heart with ours. They will remain a special asset for our Mission and they will defy time.

Many upheavals will occur, we have said it enough. Everything comes at the appropriate time, as planned by this power that regulates life not only on this Earth, but also in this vast universe where everything is of an absolute rigour. Non-compliance with these laws would create total chaos. At their own small level, human beings work sufficiently at not respecting anything. They are not the only ones on this Earth. Minimal attention on their part would, by now, be nice so as not to add to the enormous havoc that is increasingly caused by the lure of profit. An Earthly incarnation is a short passage. Wise persons respect the parameters necessary to the general balance, to all life that surrounds them. Thus they take care of what should be cared for, both for themselves and for the entire creation. Everything is connected and but one with the Creator.

We hope that at least our abhyasis can live in harmony with their surroundings. Thus do they behave as good citizens and good abhyasis. May all be blessed.
