Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, November 27, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

So many trials and struggles must be overcome on this journey of life. An incarnation is decisive for subsequent ones. Everything is counted and added to the long list of facts that characterise an entity, the essence of a being. A long story is continuing, and it is up to each one to ensure that a certain logic conducive to personal evolution is maintained in each life. Our faithful abhyasis are doing the needful; their practice is performed in the right way, and they add to it their achievements, sometimes from very far back in time. Everything here below has its raison d'être; tests are necessary. It is not easy to understand this. While advancing on this path of the heart, some aspects of life are revealed to the seeker, enabling him or her to better understand the deeper meaning of an incarnation. From stage to stage, a universe is being built, bringing the being back to the source — the source of acceptance in a state of greatest surrender, capable of ultimately leading one to bliss. It takes time to understand the true meaning of life in all its manifestations.

"The human being aspires to happiness; what does that word mean in reality? Mystical ecstasy, bliss! Achieving it is the most rewarding and important milestone for the rest of this initiatory journey. Our abhyasis are on the right path. You can all rest assured that this path contributes to the best that a human being can achieve through his or her noblest aspirations; patience and faith provide for it.

"To all, the best."
