Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, December 29, 2015 — 10:00 a.m.

The divine Babuji, as you call him, is inside you; in each of your cells is the divine energy, that which sublimates the entire being. Love is a very subtle vibration. It is amplified with one's eagerness to love, to unite with the divine presence within, that which nourishes the soul and transforms matter. Surrendering to this force is the best way to progress and to receive a transmission that comes from the living Master who is nourished himself by that which he receives from us. These exceptional exchanges achieve the best possible outcome. Time will solidify their effects, ones that can only make us happy, allowing us to go further in this unprecedented spiritual progress.

"The current era has high expectations in this area. Beliefs change, minds evolve and aspire to an ever more perfect union with this divine source, which is inexhaustible and unique. Minds are opening up, and hearts too. Their deep aspirations go far beyond the intellect, reasoning and concepts that have been imposed and are domineering. A fervent heart has its own laws. Its eagerness to progress allows it to put things into perspective and not neglect that which is essential — namely, the divine energy that dwells in it and asks only to manifest itself. Such is the purpose of our action, of the unwavering commitment that best accompanies the aspirant in this approach proposed by Sahaj Marg. Doesn't everything have its raison d'être! These messages are not trivial; they transmit our energy to all, in order to achieve the best.

"That is how it is."
