Whispers from The Brighter World

These messages will remain unique among their kind. We are making this clear once again, and it is advisable for our dearest son Kamlesh to remain vigilant on the issue.

"This Hyderabad site will stand out in the Sahaj Marg Mission. It will become its high place, blessed and intensely charged with special vibrations; we are very happy about this. The Mission is growing and becoming established in various places that will increasingly relay the power of the Spirit in their own manner. The call from abhyasis is crucial in such situations, as it allows us to focus our attention on a specific point in order to meet their expectations. Nothing is done without reason in a way like this where everything is meticulously planned for the good of all.

"Nothing is perfect in this world. It is necessary in many circumstances to compromise and adapt to the situation and to humans, who are involved in the process of life in all its forms. There are so many trials to overcome; no one escapes them. Perfection is the objective, and it will take time to approach it, however little that may be. Steadfastly following a spiritual way like Sahaj Marg greatly helps the seeker. Is everyone truly aware of their involvement and the opportunities available to them?

"May these writings help to awaken all so they can better grasp and benefit from the transmission provided by the living Master, who was chosen and is the custodian of our very special energies. Everything is for the best — endless blessings to him and to all of you."
