Whispers from The Brighter World

Friday, January 29, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

The secret door of the heart hides its treasures well. They are truly revealed only in particular circumstances favourable to this manifestation, when Love suffuses the entire being. Here the best can begin, the full awareness of this very special state. It develops slowly, according to the deep aspiration of each individual to conquer that sacred space where our ceaseless action takes place. Everything is accomplished in a way of our choosing, one that is suitable for each person. Every human being has his or her own peculiarities in a domain that is secret to science as well. Science does not go beyond these limits, how could it? Every human being has his or her own characteristics within this reserved space.

A true spiritual journey allows one to move forward towards realisation, that which transcends matter, so that the soul can finally flourish. The secret delights of such an action are revealed one day, you can be sure. Such is the absolute truth, beyond the permanent illusion in which the world is evolving. So must it be, until it reaches the desired level for opening up to another space, a more favourable dimension for fully revealing itself to the seeker.

All these words will seem quite abstract. We have no magic wand to go beyond what is currently possible. No matter, our abhyasis are advancing; above all, let them not doubt it. They are evolving over time, and we are applying ourselves towards this. Their practice is not in vain, far from it. One day they will truly understand the sacred nature of this approach, so insignificant in appearance. May all grow stronger in their faith in this way of the heart; they will not be disappointed.

Blessings to all.
