Monday, August 23, 1999 - 10:00 a.m.

As far as you are concerned, my child, we are advancing with prudence on uncertain ground. We must proceed carefully. You are very much weakened by your health problems, but be reassured, you are advancing more than you could ever imagine. Be trustful for all. Don't you feel how much we surround you? So, keep heart!"

(Visit of Janine L., today at 3 p.m.)

"Say to Janine how much we value her work and the feat she has been achieving for so many years."

Babuji