Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, February 23, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

As you know, your sufferings are not in vain; your life has been fruitful in this area as well. The divine purposes escape human understanding — such is the case for all. Karma keeps its secrets well, and this is ultimately for the best. The meanders of an incarnation hold surprises; consider the example of a longtime and fervent abhyasi who is promoted to the position of Master of the Mission, which is something he could not have imagined at the beginning of his journey. Thus do the divine laws operate, and for good reason. Even if this is not discernible to the person concerned, the essential thing is accomplished; that is what matters. Many Great Beings who left their mark on this world never imagined such a destiny for themselves.

"Sahaj Marg has already expanded in the world to a considerable extent, and this expansion can only increase at all levels. Great and beautiful ashrams will be built. They will become high places of the Sahaj Marg Mission, whose expansion will continue in the future for the good of our practitioners. How can one imagine such development — all major paths that have influenced the world started on a small scale, shall we say, before spreading worldwide. What is to be will be. What is good for the human being endures and leaves an important and lasting imprint.

"It is all by the grace of higher powers. Special blessings to all."
