Whispers from The Brighter World

Wednesday, February 24, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

We are happy to see how much these messages have brought to our abhyasis, according to each one's ability to assimilate all the teachings they offer. They are not given in vain. Minds are opening; they can glimpse what did not seem possible just a few years ago. Modern life, as it is called, provides access to certain knowledge that was not accessible to everyone some decades ago. In every human being there is a spiritual potential of which, quite often, one has no idea.

Destiny then allows encounters or provides various opportunities to access knowledge that can transform a life for the good of the seeker. Following a spiritual path opens horizons on the Infinite – this sacred space where true mystics really discover themselves, in their deep aspirations for the Divine. The true value of one's life then emerges, enabling one to truly advance on this sacred quest. Everything is slow in this world; it does take time to free oneself from the useless. Each incarnation offers possibilities, those of knowledge and of the progression of the spiritual being towards the noblest goal of all, merger with the Ultimate.

Thus, everyone can reveal their own potential and truly progress by shedding what is unnecessary. The path is long but so rewarding as one nears the long-awaited divine goal – that of Ultimate joy – while being carried by our unending love for all.
