Thursday, August 26, 1999 - 8:00 a.m.

Humanity will take a great leap forward in the decade to come. It will not be exactly restful, but discoveries will be made to fight certain diseases; less polluting energies will be used which will bring about a greater general comfort. Obscurantism will subside in certain parts of the world and many souls will wake up."

Babuji