Whispers from The Brighter World

Saturday, March 12, 2016 – 10:00 a.m.

Our story will not end; it will continue very far in time in the service of a great cause and at different levels of consciousness. Spirituality's action in this world is not limited – it continues very far in time, up to the Infinite, one might say. Let us consider here the present moment: this daily exchange that produces far more effects than one might consider.

Why would we give these messages – these very ones that truly emanate from the Source – if they were not of great importance. In the future, they will stand for the teaching that is representative of our Mission. The upheavals yet to come will not affect this movement in full expansion. It will become, in its field, a solid and decisive base for the advancement of minds towards an unprecedented openness, for the good of all. The action of this spiritual path will produce real results that will be very interesting to evaluate in terms of the benefit to human beings. Such a long way remains to be travelled. To imagine it with all its benefits constitutes a positive vision of this future so often and rightly alluded to. Current life in this world is the fruit of past actions. Everything is so slow here below. This rhythm cannot currently be changed; it is the result of the movement of the planet, included in a system of exemplary precision.

May each of our brothers and sisters work for the good, under our endless blessings.
