Whispers from The Brighter World

Sunday, March 20, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

The human being, by becoming incarnate, follows a path that is well mapped out. One does not always do as one should, but in broad terms no one escapes his or her destiny — this is how it is, one might say. How many lives will it take for this evolutionary cycle to reach closure? A well-led spiritual approach saves time. This aspect, in itself, is cause for rejoicing and worthy of consideration — of this you can be sure. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see the light; this image may make you dream. Everyone commits to this process according to their innermost aspirations. Our ceaseless action generates very encouraging results in this uncommon quest. Everyone has their own potential; bringing it to fruition is the best possible course of action. This is not always easy to understand. Human beings often prefer to enjoy life, as they say, but their karma inevitably catches up with them and they must face it. Following a spiritual path allows one to better mark the stages and to eliminate that which hinders his or her development. Being aware of this situation is a big step forward. Everyone advances at their own pace. How many beings are able to grasp the numerous aspects of this matter? The truth about the human race is very much concealed. It does not matter. Our brothers and sisters are on their way, and we are following their evolutionary cycle in this extraordinary framework, one that is decisive for their future. All may rejoice. Whatever may be their involvement in this system, they have made the right choice.

Blessings to all.
