Whispers from The Brighter World

Tuesday, March 22, 2016 — 10:00 a.m.

Each person receives according to his or her call. As you know, yours is strong; it has always been so. A great many hearts are uniting in our Mission, forming a powerful and redeeming energy. We can measure its growing effects, which add to the benefits of this practice. Everything may seem trivial, and yet in such an approach nothing happens in vain. Commitment and sincerity further reinforce the faith that is so useful for our aspirants, who are being carried through this evolutionary process. All of them follow a line of conduct on a daily basis — a course of action in everyday life — providing room for this approach amidst all of their worldly obligations. Wisdom guides their steps, and all our brothers and sisters are attended to and assisted as needed. That which is not obvious today will become so tomorrow, by force of circumstances. Each person must comply with his or her destiny, even if an approach such as ours can substantially change some aspects of that destiny. We see beautiful souls growing, being refined in their conception of the Divine, and leaving aside intentions and desires that are unsuitable for a spiritual way — one that is so decisive in bringing to perfection a rapidly expanding evolution.

The Masters of Sahaj Marg give structure to this Mission. Each one of them is a strong link within it, and each consolidates this sacred edifice that will leave its mark on this era for a very long time. Each of the ashrams is an important element, holding a vibratory power that facilitates what is accomplished over time. Sahaj Marg is growing and becoming established accordingly, along with our abhyasis, who are carried by our constant attention.

Blessings to all.
